

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians

The Argument

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entered in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof he wrote this Epistle to confirm them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, he assureth them of salvation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were born, and sealed up to this eternal life by the holie Ghost, given unto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mystery he prayeth God to confirm toward them. And to the intent they should not glory in themselves, he sheweth them their extreme misery, wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Jesus, they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesian's hearts with the perfect understanding of his Son, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindful of so great benefits, neither to be moved with the false apostles, which seek to overthrow their faith, and tread underfoot the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsel of God: who by this means preserveth only his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministry, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruits, as innocency, holiness, with all such offices appertaining to godliness. Last of all, he declareth not only in general what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concern everyman's vocation.

Chapter 1

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their salvation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his goodwill toward them, giving thanks and praying God for their faith. 21 The majesty of Christ.

Paul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to the *Saints, which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 *Blessed be God even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which hath blessed us with all ^aspiritual blessing in heavenly [^]things in Christ,

4 As he hath ^bchosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we ^{}should be ^cholie, and without blame before him in love:

5 Who hath predestinate us, to be ^dadopted through Jesus Christ unto himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the ^epraise of the glory of his grace, wherewith he hath made us accepted in his beloved,

7 By whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins, according to his rich grace:

8 Whereby he hath been abundant toward us in all wisdom and understanding,

9 And hath opened unto us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed ^fin him, 10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of the times he might gather together in one ^gall things, both which are in heaven and which are in earth, even in Christ:

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsel of his own will,

12 That ^hwe, which first trusted in Christ, should be unto the praise of his glory:

13 In whom also ye have trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, even the Gospel of your salvation, wherein also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with the holie Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, ⁱuntil the redemption of the possession purchased unto the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye have in the Lord Jesus, and love toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ the Father of glory, might give unto you the Spirit of wisdom, and revelation through the knowledge of ^khim,

18 That the eyes of your understanding may be lightened that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us, which believe, ^{*}according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from

14 i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sin by the death of Christ, Rom. 6.23, yet we hope for this second redemption which shalbe when we shall possess our inheritance in the heavens, whereof we have the holie Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4.30.

Chapter 2

5 To magnify the grace of Christ, which is the only cause of salvation, 11 He sheweth them what manner of people thy were before their conversion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

And *you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sins,

2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this world, and after the *^aprince that ruleth in the air, even the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

3 Among whom we also had our conversation in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the mind, and were ^bby nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

4 But God which is rich in mercy, through his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead by sins, hath quickened us ^ctogether [^]in Christ, by whose grace ye are saved,

6 And hath ^draised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

7 That he might show in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God,

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast himself.

10 For we are ^ehis workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath ordained, that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore ^fremember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called *uncircumcised of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at the time without Christ, and were alienates from the commonwealth of Israel, and were *strangers from the ^gcovenants of promise, and had no ^hhope, and were [^]without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye which once were far off, are made near by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the ⁱstop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his ^kflesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twain one new man in himself, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one ^lbody by his [^]cross, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a far off, and to them that were near.

18 *For through him we both have an entrance unto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth unto an holie Temple in the Lord,

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

Chapter 3

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment: 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them steadfast in his Spirit.

For this cause, I Paul am the ^aprisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the ^bdispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you ward,

3 That is, that God by revelation hath showed this mystery unto me (as I wrote ^cabove in few words,

4 Whereby when ye read, ye may know mine understanding in the mystery of Christ)

9 And to make clear unto all men what the fellowship of the *mystery is, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who hath created all things by Jesus Christ,

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

16 That he might grant you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

10 f The Church being gathered of so many kinds of people, is an example, or a glass for the Angels to behold the wisdom of God in, who hath turned their particular discords into an universal concord, and of the Synagogue of bondage, hath made the Church of freedom.

15 g He that is not of the body of Christ, is in death.

15 h The faithful which died before Christ came, were adopted by him, and make one family with the Saints which yet remain alive.

God hath given him, 14 To beware of strange doctrine. 22 To lay aside the old conversation of greedy lusts, & to walk in a new life.

| *therefore, being prisoner in the ^aLord, pray you that ye walk worthy of the vocation whereunto ye are called,

2 With all humbleness of mind, and meekness, with long suffering, supporting one another through love,

3 Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is ^bone body, and one ^cSpirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism,

6 *One God and Father of all, which is ^dabove all, and ^ethrough all, and in you all.

7 *But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the ^fgift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, *When he ascended up on high, he ^glead captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now, in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is even the same that ascended, far above all heavens, that he might fill ^hall things)

11 *He therefore gave some to be Apostles, & some Prophets, & some Evangelists, & some Pastors, & Teachers,

12 For the ⁱgathering together of the Saints, for the work of the ministry, ^kand for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till we all meet together (in the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God) unto a ^lperfect man, and unto the measure of the age of the fulness of Christ,

14 That we henceforth be no more children, wavering & carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the deceit of men, & with craftiness, whereby they lay in wait to deceive.

15 But let us follow the truth in love, and in all things grow up into him, which is the ^mhead, that is Christ,

16 By whom all the body being coupled & knit together by every joint, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectual power, which is in the measure of every part) receiveth increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.

12 k That the body of Christ might be perfect.

13 l That we may be of a ripe Christian age and come to the full measure of the knowledge which we shall have of Christ.

15 m Christ being head of his Church, nourishes his members and joins them together by joints: so that every part hath his just proportion of food, that at length the body may grow up to perfection.

17 This I say therefore and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in vanity of their ⁿmind,

18 Having their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of ^oGod through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ^phardness of their heart:

19 Which being [^]past ^{*}feeling, have given themselves unto wantonness, to work all uncleanness, even with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ.

21 If so be ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the ^qtruth is in Jesus,

22 That is, ^{*}that ye cast off, concerning the conversation in time past, the [^]old man, which is corrupt through the deceivable lusts,

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

24 ^{*}And put on the new man, which [^]after God is created in righteousness, and true holiness.

25 ^{*}Wherefore cast off lying, and speak every man truth unto his neighbor: for we are members one of another.

26 ^{*}Be [^]angry, but sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath,

27 ^{*}Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but let him rather labor and work with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give unto him that needeth.

29 ^{*}Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouths: but that which is good, to the use of edifying, that it may minister ^ugrace unto the hearers.

30 And ^xgrieve not the holie Spirit of God by whom ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and anger, and wrath, crying, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all maliciousness.

32 ^{*}Be ye courteous one to another, and tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake forgave you.

6 ^{*}Let no ^dman deceive you with vain words: for for such things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not therefore companions with them.

8 For ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as ^echildren of light,

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth)

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but even ^freprove them rather.

12 For it is shame even to speak of the things, which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things when they are reprov'd of the ^glight, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.

 22 ¶ *Wives, submit yourselves unto your husbands, as unto the Lord.
 23 *For the husband is the wife's head, even as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the saviour of his ⁿbody.
 24 Therefore as the Church is in subjection to Christ, even so let the wives be to their husbands in everything.
 25 ¶ *Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it,
 26 That he might sanctify it, and cleanse it by the ^owashing of water through the word,
 27 That he might make it unto himself a glorious Church, not having ^pspot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holie and without blame.
 28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.
 29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord doeth the Church.

 32 This is a great secret, but I speak concerning Christ, and concerning the Church.
 33 Therefore every one of you, do ye so: let every one love his wife, even as himself, and let the wife see that she fear her husband.
